CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Ribble Cycles - High-Performance D2C Bike Brand Nov 2024 - Present

Head of Brand and Marketing (Nov 2024 - Jan 2026), now retained Marketing Advisor three days a week

Budget responsibility: £1.2M. Landed 2024/2025 budget under at £920,000.

- Reshaped the marketing team - reorganised roles and responsibilities across the department.
- Built organisational structure - processes, planning, and a new task management platform.
- Day-to-day management of marketing team, retail stakeholders, and agencies.
- Onboarded Shift Active Media (PR) and Commute Films (creative video production).
- Board-level impact - strategic presentations to the board as part of the SMT to PE Owners.
- Built strategic PR process - managed product-to-journalist pipeline on schedule. Secured BBC and ITV TV coverage in 2025.
- Coverage growth - articles 135 to 196, est. views 1.89M to 4.42M, potential audience 117M to 327M.
- Brand repositioning - shifted perception from "budget heritage" to "high-performance technical" - ULTRA-RACE compared to Colnago rather than Planet X or Dolan.
- Ribble Outliers - thought leadership on LinkedIn alongside B2C content. Partnership marketing with Precision and Restrap added 8,000+ email subscribers.
- Presenting Partner, British Gravel Championships - digital and physical rights negotiation, planning, and execution.
- Gravel category growth - Ribble's fastest-growing segment, +2pp above market, taking competitor share.
- ALLGRIT & ULTRA-GRIT go-to-market - wrote the positioning and messaging framework and the GTM plan for the range and its material variants, ran the press tour, and produced the showroom and retailer education assets with localised versions for each market. Ribble's most successful new product launch.
- Ribble Outliers programme - built and ran the team as a seven-figure programme across three seasons, with Ribble as headline sponsor and partners I brought in alongside, owning its budget, its partners and the return it had to deliver.
- Ribble Outliers race programme - all four national titles at the 2026 UK Gravel National Championships, 2nd at the UCI Gralloch with Jenson Young, and a team film from The Traka in Girona.
- The Original Outliers rebrand - led the rebrand with FreshBritain as my first major project and rolled it out across retail, the website and social. Closely involved in the messaging, and carried it through the tone of voice and product copy.

- 2025 strategic objectives - grow gravel market share, increase regional penetration (NE and South), launch four new bikes.
- Led NPD marketing - market gap analysis, sign-off documents, and GTM strategies.
- Smurfit Westrock & Cyclist magazine - "Welcome to Hell" mini-documentary on the CiCLE Classic win.
